

Dear 2019 Camp Como Summer Staff Applicant,

Thank you for expressing an interest in becoming a part of our Christian staff. Camp Como provides a great opportunity for you to live out a real concern for God's people and all of creation. It is also an opportunity to develop many lasting friendships with others who have an enthusiasm and joy for Christian camping. This experience will help you to develop a deeper expression of your faith in God. If you are selected from the many who apply each year, the summer's work will probably be the hardest, but also the most challenging and rewarding that you have ever had!

The following are job opportunities available in our camping ministry at Camp Como. Brief job descriptions have been included that will give you an idea of the responsibilities associated with each position:

Float

Has the widest variety of jobs and will have a constant change of activities including rotations through Adventure Programming, grounds/vehicle/facilities maintenance, and work in our food service program. There will also be occasions for both our guy and gal floats to be Core Counselors to teenagers who are volunteers in our camp programs.

Director's Summer Assistant

This position is for a college age or older male who will be responsible for an array of office duties including, but not limited to: receiving camper records and fees, generating and distributing reports, assisting with check-in and check-out, operating our retail store and making deposits and assisting with our license and permit processes with the state of Colorado. Good communication skills are important. This job is best suited for a highly organized person who wants to work on the administration side of Christian camping for their summer.

ALL personnel must be able to attend the pre-camp staff training period, beginning Thursday, May 30th, 2019. A full summer contract will end on August 1st after lunch. $\frac{3}{4}$ summer contract will end on July 18 after lunch. $\frac{1}{2}$ summer contract ends on June 27th after lunch. First year summer staff will receive \$170/week and second year summer staff will receive \$185/week and a third year summer staff will receive \$205. Room, board, workers' compensation insurance and staff training are benefits in addition to salary.

If you are interested in serving as a Camp Como staff member for the summer of 2019, please complete the online staff application.
