This year's speaker is Robert Cornuke —

A former police investigator and SWAT team member, he's a biblical investigator, international explorer and author of nine books. He has participated in over fifty expeditions around the world searching for lost locations described in the Bible. These journeys include searching for Mount Sinai in Egypt and Saudi Arabia, looking for the remains of Noah's Ark in Turkey with astronaut Jim Irwin (the eighth man to walk on the moon) and researching ancient Assyrian and Babylonian flood accounts in Iran. He is president of the Bible Archaeology Search and Exploration (BASE) Institute and has been featured on major television networks including, ABC, FOX, CNN, National Geographic, and the History Channel. He and his wife, Terry, along with their children, make their home in the Pikes Peak region of Colorado.

He has followed ancient accounts of the Ark of the Covenant from Israel to Egypt and across Ethiopian highlands, and, most recently, his research team found the probable location of Paul's shipwreck off the coast of Malta. This find has resulted in the accounting of what many are saying are all four anchors, as described in Acts: 27. His most recent adventure is sparking international controversy. Chronicled in his new book "Temple", Bob makes the assertion that the Temples of Solomon and Herod are located in the City of David and not on the traditional temple mount platform.

Can you imagine the upheaval in the political and religious world if the Temple Mount in Jerusalem is not the site of Solomon's and Herod's temples? And what if the stones of the Wailing Wall are not what tradition says?

In this highly-researched, exciting book, the author proposes from current archaeological excavations and Scriptural corroboration that the true temple location is not where tradition teaches. Even more astounding is what has been uncovered concerning the Ark of the Covenant and the location of the future Millennial temple.
